SHOW REPORTS

RIDGE - September 24th

The Ridge Chapter had 67 Amateur entrants and 91 gold seal bloom from which these winners were picked:

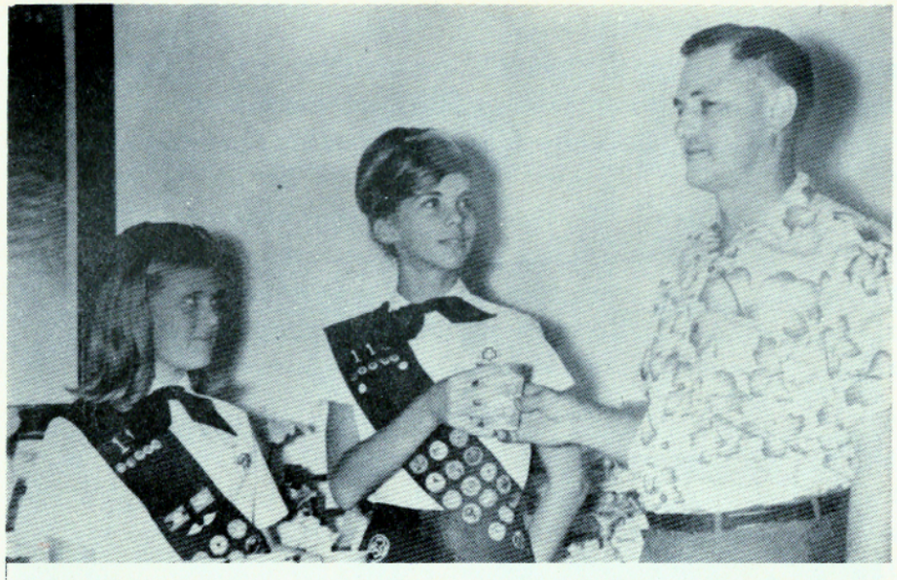
Best Amateur Bloom - "American Beauty" grown by Dale Enslin.
Best Collector Bloom - "A double peach colored seedling" grown by John Wallace.
Best Commercial bloom - "Many Times" grown by D. U. Donaldson.

Tri-colors were given for:

Amateur Single - "Jim Hendry" by M. G. Gimes, Port Orange.
Amateur Double - "Mildred Rutter" by Dale Enslin, of Holly Hill.
Commercial Single - "Many Times" by D. U. Donaldson also was chosen best commercial bloom.
Commercial Double - "Elephant Ear" by D. U. Donaldson
Collector Single - "Caution" by Ed and Bill Bryan of Lakeland.
Collector Double - "Martha Fleming" by O. H. Hinson of St. Petersburg.
Old Favorite Single - "Helen Walker" by Louis Richards of Winter Haven.
Old Favorite Double - "American Beauty" by Dale Enslin also was chosen best Amateur Bloom.
Miniature Single - "Delray Pink" by N. J. Brubaker of Vero Beach.
Miniature Double - "Mrs. Lamont" also by Brubaker.
Seedling Single - "A pink with a red eye" by John Wallace of thh Halifax Chapter.
Seedling Double was also grown by Wallace and took the Best Collector Bloom honors.

Collector Sweepstakes was won by Ed and Bill Bryan of Lakeland, Commercial Sweepstakes won by Reasoner's Nursery and Amateur Sweepstakes by Col. and Mrs. R. E Niffenegger.

(Please turn to page 21)



The Executive Secretary, James E. Monroe, gets an orange juice pick-up at the Putnam show. He looks as if he needs it. The Cadette Scouts are Vicky Hodges, left and Kerry Tulley.

Mr. Mark Swingley and Mrs. Evelyn Monroe peek through the stage props at the Norman Reasoner chapter show.